Ramsey Hill House Tour

3 pm to 8 pm

Tickets at www.ramseyhill.org

The Ramsey Hill Association biennial house tour this year carries the theme, "Contemporary Living in the Homes of Saint Paul's Gilded Past." The popular self-guided tour will feature the history, architecture, and modern improvements of more than 18 stunning homes and public spaces. Ramsey Hill is one of the oldest neighborhoods in the Twin Cities. Tour attendees will be invited into select homes of Ramsey Hill residents to see beautiful architectural details, learn about the history of previous residents and the neighborhood, and discover contemporary touches. Homes reflect a variety of architectural styles—Richardsonian Romanesque, Queen Anne, neo-Colonial, classic east coast row houses, true Victorian painted ladies and so many more.

Books for Border Kids

September 1 – October 31

booksforborderkids.org

Books for Border Kids (BBK) was created by a group of concerned individuals in Minneapolis and St. Paul who wanted to inspire hope in young refugee children now on our border with Mexico. Because we believe that books can stir a child's imagination and enrich young lives, we teamed up with two independent children's bookstores—Red Balloon Bookshop in St. Paul and Wild Rumpus Books in Minneapolis—to facilitate the purchase of bilingual, Spanish, or Portuguese books through our Books for Border Kids website. Both bookstores agreed to ship the children's books free of charge to a distribution center in New Mexico. We hope you will join us in this effort to put books in the hands of refugee children—books that can offer comfort, hope, and enjoyment, and in turn strengthen their ability to navigate this difficult period in their lives.
